A Supplement to the act, entitled, An act authorising the laying out a certain road in Frederick county.

Passed 8th of
January, 1802.

WHEREAS by an act of assembly, passed at November session, eighteen hundred and one, entitled, An act authorising the laying out a certain road in Frederick county, and to which this is a supplement, the commissioners therein named are authorised and directed to open and clear a road, thirty feet wide, from the road leading from Petersburgh, in the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, to the town of Westminster, in Frederick county, to begin at or near where said road crosses Big Pipe creek, and near the upper end of Peter Erb's meadow, and to run in a direct line to intersect the road leading from Hanover, in the said commonwealth of Pennsylvania, to the aforesaid town of Westminster, in Frederick county, at the first angle on said road, on the north side of Big Pipe creek: And whereas it is represented to this general assembly, by the petition of Andrew Shriver, the petitioner in the said original act named, and by Peter Erb and John Erb, through whose lands the said road will pass, that the said original act cannot be carried into effect without great inconvenience to the said petitioners, unless a discretionary power is given to said commissioners to deviate from a direct line in the laying out and opening said road, and have prayed that the same may be done; therefore,

Preamble.
