

C H A P.
LXIII.

vided for that purpose all applications to, and all other proceedings of, the said board; and the register shall countersign all warrants for pilots granted by the board, and every such warrant shall be under the seal of the said board.

No person to act as a pilot,
&c.

V. AND BE IT ENACTED, That it shall not be lawful for any person to act as a pilot, notwithstanding his having obtained a warrant as aforesaid, unless he, or the company to which he belongs, shall keep one sufficient boat, of twenty-six feet keel streight rabbit at the least, and decked and well found, under the penalty of one hundred and fifty dollars for every vessel such person shall undertake to conduct or pilot; and the name of every boat, and the place she belongs to, shall be put on her stern, and on her mainsail and foresail, in large letters.

Penalty for acting without licence, &c.

VI. AND BE IT ENACTED, That if any person, not having a warrant as a pilot agreeable to this act, shall presume to take upon himself to conduct or pilot any vessel bound from any port in this state to sea, or coming from sea and bound up any river of this state, and to any port thereof, every such person shall forfeit one hundred and fifty dollars, and such person shall also be liable for all damages occasioned by his undertaking to conduct or pilot any such vessel, by action at common law; provided, that this prohibition shall not extend to prevent any person from assisting any vessel in distress, if such person shall deliver up such vessel to any pilot who shall come on board, and offer to conduct or pilot such vessel, and he shall pay such person one half of the fees received by him for the pilotage of such vessel.

Six may be in partnership.

VII. AND BE IT ENACTED, That not more than six pilots shall be in partnership, under the penalty of two hundred dollars each.

Pilots to procure a copy of this law, &c.

VIII. AND BE IT ENACTED, That every pilot, on receiving a warrant as aforesaid, shall supply himself, from the register of the board, with a copy of the law, for which he shall pay twenty-five cents to said register, and shall also give bond, with good security, (such as shall be approved of,) in the penalty of five hundred dollars, for the faithful discharge of his duty agreeably to this act.

Board may make rules, &c.

IX. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said board of examiners may make such rules and orders for the government and regulation of pilots appointed and licensed by them, as they may think proper, not contrary to the provisions of this act; and the said board may, by their order, deprive any of the said pilots of their licence, or suspend them for a limited time, for breaking such rules or orders, or omitting any thing required by the same, or for acting in any manner contrary thereto; and if any of the said pilots, so suspended or deprived, during the time of such suspension or deprivation shall take upon him to pilot or conduct any vessel, such pilot shall forfeit and pay one hundred dollars for every such offence.

Vessels obliged to receive pilots, &c.

X. AND, for the encouragement of pilots to do their duty, BE IT ENACTED, That every master of a merchant-vessel drawing nine feet water or upwards, coming from sea, shall be obliged to receive the first pilot who offers below the Horseshoe to conduct or pilot his vessel, and shall continue the same pilot to his first port of discharge, or shall pay him half pilotage to the first port; and every master of a merchant-vessel of the aforesaid draught of water, going to sea, shall be obliged to receive a pilot to conduct or pilot his vessel, and shall continue the same pilot to the Capes, or pay half pilotage to the Capes to the first applicant, and the master of every vessel, not having a pilot on board, who shall follow another vessel that has a pilot on board, shall pay him half pilotage; and every pilot shall be exempt from militia duty during the time he shall act as pilot.

Pilot to offer
first to the vessel nearest land,
&c.

XI. AND BE IT ENACTED, That every pilot cruising or standing out to sea, shall offer his services first to the vessel nearest the land, or in most distress, under the penalty of fifty dollars; and if any pilot, not being hindered by sickness or other lawful cause, shall refuse to go on board any vessel when required by the master, to execute his office, such pilot shall forfeit and pay one hundred dollars, and in either case, upon complaint and conviction before the board of examiners, such pilot shall be liable to be suspended by them for such time as they shall think fit; and every pilot, on offering his services to the master of any vessel, shall produce and shew to such master his warrant of appointment and licence, granted him in virtue of this act, under the penalty of ten dollars for every neglect.

Penalty for negligence, &c.

XII. AND BE IT ENACTED, That if any pilot shall negligently or carelessly lose any vessel under his care, and be thereof convicted by due course of law, he shall for ever after such conviction be incapable of acting as a pilot in this state, and shall be also liable by action at common law to pay all such damages as any person shall sustain by such negligence or carelessness; and if any pilot
