An ACT authorising Lawrence Brengle, collector of Frederick county, to complete his collection.

Passed January 5, 1805.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the petition of Lawrence Brengle, collector of Frederick county, that from various causes therein set forth he has not been able to complete his collection within the time limited, and that there is still due him, as collector of said county, considerable sums of money, and praying that a law may pass to enable him to collect the same; therefore,

Preamble.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said Lawrence Brengle be and he is hereby authorised and empowered to collect, until the first day of November, eighteen hundred and five, all balances due him as collector of Frederick county for the year eighteen hundred and four, in the same manner as he could or might have done within the time limited by law, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

L. Brengle may collect, &c.

III. AND BE IT ENACTED, That it shall be the duty of the said Lawrence Brengle, before he proceeds to execute or distrain the property of any person or persons for taxes or public dues in virtue of this act, to deliver to such person or persons chargeable with the same, at least thirty days previous to levying such execution or distress, an account, written in words at full length, of the taxes or public dues demanded of him, her or them, with an affidavit annexed, if required, that he hath not received any part thereof, nor any thing as security or satisfaction for the same, more than credit given, to the best of his knowledge.

To deliver an account, &c.

IV. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said Lawrence Brengle, before he derives any benefit from or under this act, shall lodge a copy of his collection books in the clerk's office of Frederick county, to be open for the inspection of all persons interested in the same.

Books to be lodged, &c.

An ACT to lay out and open a road through Tuckahoe Neck, in Caroline county.

Passed January 5, 1805.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the petition of sundry inhabitants of Caroline county, that they suffer many inconveniencies from the want of a road to commence at or near John Ruth's mill, in Tuckahoe Neck, and to run in the straightest direction that the nature of the ground and other circumstances will admit, until it intersects the public road leading from Denton to Price's ferry, at or near a causeway at the northerly corner of the late Henry Rhodes's plantation, in Caroline county; therefore,

Preamble.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That George Martin, Thomas B. Daffin, John Ruth, James Hicks and William Oxenham, or any three of them, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners to survey, lay out, open and clear, at the expence of the petitioners, or any part of them particularly interested therein, a road, not exceeding thirty feet in width, to commence at or near John Ruth's mill, in Tuckahoe Neck, and to run in the best and straightest direction that the nature of the ground and other circumstances will admit, until it intersects the public road leading from Denton to Price's ferry, at or near a causeway at the northerly corner of the late Henry Rhodes's plantation, in Caroline county; and the road, when so opened at the expence of the petitioners as aforesaid, and the valuation herein after directed to be made shall be paid, or secured to be paid, to the individuals concerned, shall be recorded among the records of Caroline county court, and be thereafter deemed and taken to be a public road for ever, and shall be kept in repair in the same manner as other public roads in said county.

Commissioners appointed, &c.

III. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said commissioners may appoint one of their number as treasurer, and give him a certificate under their hands of his appointment, who is hereby enjoined and empowered to collect and receive all monies subscribed, or that may be subscribed, for the purpose of opening the said road, and such subscribers are hereby directed to pay their several subscriptions to the treasurer appointed as aforesaid; and if any person shall neglect or refuse, when applied to by the aforesaid treasurer, to pay his subscription money, the said treasurer may and he is hereby authorised to sue for, recover and receive the same; and the said monies, when received, shall be applied by the commissioners, or any three of them, to the purpose of this act.

Who shall appoint a treasurer, &c.
