An ACT for opening and extending a certain street in the city of Baltimore.

Passed January 12, 1805.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by a number of the inhabitants of the city of Baltimore, that their convenience would be very materially promoted by the opening and extending a street in the said city running from Green-street to High-street; and the said representation appearing just, therefore,

Preamble.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the city commissioners be and they are hereby empowered to open and extend a street in the city of Baltimore, commencing at the intersection of Green and North-streets, and continuing the same course of North-street until it intersects High-street, passing the same by a sugar-house lately erected by Messieurs Tool and Shutt; and the said street, when so opened and extended, and the valuation and assessment herein after directed to be made shall have taken place, shall be deemed and taken, and is hereby declared, to be a public street and highway for ever thereafter; and the said commissioners are hereby required to return a plot ascertaining the limits and extent of the said street, when so extended and opened, to the register of the city of Baltimore, who shall receive and file the same as part of the plot of the city of Baltimore.

A street to be opened, &c.

III. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the sheriff of Baltimore county, after having given at least ten days notice in one of the news-papers of the city of Baltimore, shall, at any time before the first Monday of May next, summon twelve freeholders, inhabitants of the said city, not interested in the premises, who being first sworn to assess and value what damages shall be sustained by any person or persons whomsoever, by reason of the opening and extending the aforesaid street. (taking all benefits and inconveniencies into consideration,) shall proceed to assess and value what damages may be sustained by any person or persons whomsoever, by opening and extending the said street, and shall also declare what sum of money each individual benefitted thereby shall respectively contribute and pay towards compensating the person or persons injured by opening and extending the said street; and the names of the person or persons, and the sums of money which they shall respectively be obliged to pay, shall be returned, under their hands and seals, to the register aforesaid of the said city, to be filed and kept in his office; and the person or persons benefitted by the opening of said street, and assessed as aforesaid, shall respectively pay the sum or sums of money so charged and Sheriff to summon freeholders, &c.
