An ACT to authorise William Du Bourg, and others, associated professors of a seminary of learning in the vicinity of the city of Baltimore, to admit students to degrees, and to grant diplomas.

Passed January
19, 1805.

WHEREAS it has always been considered necessary and proper that all flourishing seminaries of learning, in which a regular and full course of education is established to be taught, should have the power of granting diplomas, or honorary testimonials of the proficiency and merit of their students, as well from a principle of justice and advantage to the graduates, as with a view of publishing to the world the reputation of the seminaries themselves; therefore,

Preamble.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That William Du Bourg, and others, associated professors of a seminary of learning in the vicinity of the city of Baltimore, be and they are hereby authorised and empowered to hold public commencements, either on stated annual days, or occasionally, as the ordinances of the said seminary may direct, and at such commencements to admit any of the students in said seminary to any degree or degrees in any of the faculties, arts and sciences, and liberal professions, which are usually permitted to be conferred in any colleges or universities in America or Europe; and it is hereby enacted, that the said William Du Bourg, and others, associated professors in the said seminary, or a majority of them, shall make out, and sign with their names, diplomas or certificates of the admission to such degree or degrees, and the same

Professors may hold commencements,
