

1805.

NOVEMBER.

L A W S OF M A R Y L A N D.

C H A P.
XXXVI.

manner as he could or might have done within the time limited by law, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. AND BE IT ENACTED, That it shall be the duty of the said Jacob Schnebly, before he proceeds to execute or distrain the property of any person or persons for taxes or public dues in virtue of this act, to deliver to such person or persons chargeable with the same, at least thirty days previous to levying such execution or distress, an account, written in words at full length, of the taxes or public dues demanded of him or them, with an affidavit annexed, if required, that he hath not received any part thereof, nor any thing as security or satisfaction for the same, more than credit given, to the best of his knowledge.

IV. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said Jacob Schnebly, before he derives any benefit from or under this act, shall lodge a copy of his collection books in the clerk's office of Washington county, to be opened for the inspection of all persons interested in the same.

C H A P. XXXVII.

Passed 25th of
January, 1806.

An ACT authorising Lawrence Brengle, late collector of Frederick county, to complete his collection.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the petition and memorial of Lawrence Brengle, late collector of Frederick county, that from various causes therein set forth, he has not been able to complete his collection within the time limited, and that there is still due him, as collector of said county, considerable sums of money, and praying that a law may pass to enable him to collect the same; therefore,

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said Lawrence Brengle be and he is hereby authorised and empowered to collect, until the first day of November, eighteen hundred and six, all balances due him, as late collector of Frederick county, for the years eighteen hundred and two, eighteen hundred and three and eighteen hundred and four, in the same manner as he could or might have done within the time limited by law, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. AND BE IT ENACTED, That it shall be the duty of the said Lawrence Brengle, before he proceeds to execute or distrain the property of any person or persons for taxes or public dues in virtue of this act, to deliver to such person or persons chargeable for the same, at least thirty days previous to levying such execution or distress, an account, written in words at full length, of the taxes or public dues demanded of him, her or them, with an affidavit annexed, if required, that he hath not received any part thereof, nor any thing as security or satisfaction for the same, more than credit given, to the best of his knowledge.

IV. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said Lawrence Brengle, before he derives any benefit from or under this act, shall lodge a copy of his collection books in the clerk's office of Frederick county, to be open for the inspection of all persons interested in the same.

C H A P. XXXVIII.

Passed 25th of
January, 1806.

An ACT for the benefit of Anne Reynolds, of Talbot county.

BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the right and title of this state in and to the house and lot of ground purchased by the said Anne Reynolds from Johannes Arrants, according to the description, metes and bounds, contained in the deed executed by the said Johannes Arrants to her, and duly acknowledged and enrolled among the land records of Talbot county aforesaid, be and the same are hereby relinquished and released.

II. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the right, title, interest and estate, of the state of Maryland, in and to the house and lot of ground aforesaid, be, and the same are hereby granted, vested and confirmed, to and in the said Anne Reynolds, during the time of her natural life, and immediately after her decease to and in her children, Rebecca, Anne, Margaret, Hannah and Stephen M'Intire, their heirs and assigns, as joint tenants, with the benefit of survivorship between them.

III. PROVIDED ALWAYS, AND BE IT ENACTED, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect or defeat the right of any other person or persons whatsoever, who may have acquired the same, in and to the property aforesaid, or any part thereof, before the passage of this act.