

execute a deed or deeds for conveying the same, as the case may require; provided, that before any deed shall be executed by the trustees aforesaid for the cleared land hereby authorised to be exchanged, a deed or deeds, conveying the land which they may receive in exchange, shall be executed, conveying the same to them, as trustees of the poor of Prince-George's county, and their successors, for ever, which deeds, when so executed, and recorded among the land records of Prince-George's county, shall have the effect to convey the lands therein mentioned, according to the true intent and meaning thereof.

C H A P.
LIX.

A Supplement to an act, entitled, An act for the establishment of a new public road in Somerset county, passed at November session, seventeen hundred and ninety-eight.

Passed 25th of January, 1806.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, that a number of the inhabitants of Somerset county experience considerable inconvenience from the want of said road, mentioned and described in the original act, and have it not in their power, without some public assistance, to defray the costs and charges of the same; therefore,

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the levy court of said county are hereby empowered to assess and levy on said county, if they shall think fit, and it shall appear to them that the said road, when opened, will be of public utility, a sum of money, not exceeding fifty dollars, and cause the same to be paid to the commissioners named in the original act to which this is a supplement, to be applied by them to the payment of the expences of said road.

C H A P. LXI.

An ACT to extend the powers of the trustees of the poor of Montgomery county.

Passed 25th of January, 1806.

WHEREAS John Randle, Ally Campbell and Rebecca Dennis, of Montgomery county, by their petitions to this general assembly have set forth, that by reason of many bodily infirmities, and various other causes therein set forth, they are unable to obtain a livelihood by labour, and praying to be supported out of the poor-house of said county as out-pensioners; and the prayer of the said petitioners appearing reasonable, therefore,

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for the trustees of the poor of Montgomery county, if they shall be of opinion that the peculiar circumstances of the said John Randle, Ally Campbell and Rebecca Dennis, are such as to render a situation in the poor-house particularly unsuitable for them, to support them as out-pensioners, in addition to the number now allowed by the act, entitled, An act to enlarge the powers of the trustees of the poor in the several counties therein designated, and to allow to the said John Randle, Ally Campbell and Rebecca Dennis, not exceeding thirty dollars each, to be paid at such time as the said trustees shall direct, the amount of which said pensions shall be levied in the same manner as the other expences of the poor-house in the said county; provided, that the application of the said John Randle, Ally Campbell and Rebecca Dennis, to be supported as out-pensioners as aforesaid, shall be recommended by the levy court of said county.

C H A P. LXII.

A Supplement to the act, entitled, An act to streighten part of the road in Harford county which leads from Underhill's mill to the city of Baltimore.

Passed 25th of January, 1806.

WHEREAS sundry inhabitants of Harford county, by their petition have represented to this general assembly, that the commissioners appointed under the original act to which this is a supplement, in taking a view of ground over which the road in the said original act mentioned was contemplated to pass, that it would be more advantageously laid out, to intersect at the Rock Ford, on the Little Falls, instead of intersecting at Hanway's mill, as provided in the said original act, and praying that an act may pass appointing commissioners to make the alterations aforesaid on said road, beginning near a place called and known by the name of The Sandy Bottom, on the road leading from Coop's-town to Hanway's mill, and to streighten and amend the said road until they intersect the Rock Ford, on the Little Falls, with power to assess the damages; and the same being considered reasonable, therefore,