An ACT authorising the late collectors of public taxes in Cæcil county to complete their several collections.

Passed 25th of
January, 1806.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the petitions of James Cochran and Samuel Cowden, two of the collectors of the first and second districts in Cæcil county, that from various causes therein set forth, they have not been able to complete their several collections within the time limited by law, and that there is still due them, as collectors of the first and second districts in said county, considerable sums of money, and praying that a law may pass enabling them to collect the same: And whereas William Knight, the collector of the third district of Cæcil county, is dead, and David Patton, of said district, is appointed in his stead to complete the same; therefore,

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said James Cochran, Samuel Cowden and David Patton, be and they are hereby severally authorised to collect, until the first day of July, eighteen hundred and six, all balances due them as collectors of the several districts of Cæcil county for which they were severally appointed collectors for the year eighteen hundred and five, in the same manner as they might or could have done within the time limited by law, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. AND BE IT ENACTED, That it shall be the duty of each of the said collectors, before he proceeds to execute or distrain the property of any person or persons for taxes or public dues in virtue of this act, to deliver to such person or persons chargeable with the same, at least twenty days previous to levying such execution or distress, an account, written in words at full length, of the taxes demanded of him, her or them, with an affidavit annexed, if required, that no part or parcel thereof hath been received, nor any thing as security or satisfaction for the same, more than the credit given, to the best of his knowledge.

IV. AND BE IT ENACTED, That before either of the collectors aforesaid derive any benefit from or under this act, he shall lodge a copy of his collection books in the clerk's office of Cæcil county, to be open for the inspection of all persons interested in the same.
