A Further supplement to the act, entitled, An act authorising Thomas Bailey, late sheriff and collector of Baltimore county, to complete his collection, and for other purposes.

Passed 20th of January, 1808.

WHEREAS by the act to which this is a supplement, Thomas Bailey, late sheriff of Baltimore county, is authorised and empowered, until the first day of January, eighteen hundred and eight, in as full and ample manner as he could have done during the time limited by law, to collect all balances due him, as sheriff and collector of Baltimore county for the year eighteen hundred and five; and it being represented to this general assembly, that the said law was intended to provide for the collection of balances due, and to have been collected in the year eighteen hundred and six, and from the multiplicity of business of the said sheriff and collector, he was unable to complete his said collection within the period aforesaid, and that an extension of the said time is necessary to the completion of the same; therefore,

Preamble

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said Thomas Bailey be and he is hereby authorised and empowered, until the first day of January, in the year eighteen hundred and nine, to collect all balances due him as sheriff and collector of Baltimore county for the year eighteen hundred and six, in the same manner, and upon the same terms and conditions, that he might have collected the same before the first day of January, eighteen hundred and eight.

T. Bailey may collect, &c.
