An ACT for the relief of James Mulvany, of Washington county.

Passed 20th of Dec 1808.

WHEREAS James Mulvany, of Washington county, emigrated to the state of Maryland in seventeen hundred and eighty four, and has ever since resided therein, and since his emigration and settlement as aforesaid, has acquired real property therein, and his title to such property, from his not having become naturalized agreeably to the laws of Maryland, or those of the United States, may be called in question, to his great detriment and injury; therefore,

Preamble.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the title of the real property of the said James Mulvany, fully and fairly acquired heretofore, by purchase or deed, be and the same is hereby amply and fully vested in the said James Mulvany, and his heirs, in fee-simple, to all intents and purposes, in the same manner that it would have been if the said James Mulvany had been duly naturalized agreeably to said laws, at the time of his said purchase, and when he received his said deeds; provided always, that nothing in this act contained shall in any manner defeat or affect any right, title or claim, to the said property, or any part thereof, acquired or prosecuted by any person or persons whatever before the passage of this act; and provided also, in case the said James Mulvany hath not as yet become a citizen of the United States, that unless he shall, on or before the thirty-first day of October, which shall be in the year eighteen hundred and nine, proceed according to law to make himself a citizen of the United States, this act shall have no effect to confirm his title to the property above mentioned; but if the said James Mulvany die before the thirty-first day of October, eighteen hundred and nine, nothing in this proviso contained shall prevent him from transmitting or transferring his said property, by descent or devise, to any person or persons being a citizen or citizens of the United States, and residing therein, capable in law to hold the same.

Title vested,
&c.
