An ACT authorising a lottery to erect suitable buildings for a school-house for the accommodation of the youth of Emmitsburgh, and its vicinity, in Frederick county.

Passed 24th of
Dec. 1808.

BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for Philip Nunamaker, Lewis Motter, Lewis Weaver, James Hughes, William Emmitt, Henry Williams and John Huston, or a majority of them, to propose a scheme of a lottery for raising a sum, not exceeding twelve hundred dollars, and to sell the tickets in said lottery, provided they, or a majority of them as shall undertake to act under this law shall, before the sale of any ticket or tickets in said lottery, give their bond to the state of Maryland, in the penalty of two thousand five hundred dollars, conditioned that they will well and truly apply so much of the money arising therefrom, within twelve months after the completion of the drawing of said lottery, as will satisfy the fortunate adventurers for prizes drawn by them, and after deducting the necessary expenses incurred in said lottery shall, within eighteen months after the lottery is drawn, apply the money raised by such lottery for the purpose of erecting suitable buildings for a school-house in or near the town of Emmitsburgh.

A scheme may be proposed,
&c.

II. AND BE IT ENACTED, That it shall be the duty of the said commissioners, before they act as such, to lodge the bond made and entered into as aforesaid in the office of the clerk of Frederick county court, there to be recorded, and upon such bond, or any office copy thereof, suit or suits may be instituted against the obligors therein, or any of them, or their legal representatives, for any breach or noncompliance with the conditions of the same.

Bond to be lodged, &c.

An ACT for the relief of Nancy Gaither, Sarah Gaither and Mary Gaither, of Anne-Arundel county.

Passed 24th of
Dec. 1808.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the petition of Nancy Gaither, Sarah Gaither and Mary Gaither, of Anne-Arundel county, that a law passed in the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-three, chapter thirty-eight, entitled, An act to appoint commissioners to straighten and amend the roads therein mentioned, and for other purposes, under the authority of which law the commissioners therein named proceeded to lay out the road from Elk-ridge Landing by Owing's mill, and intersected Ellicott's road at the west end of the petitioner's land, which, if opened, will materially injure their property, in as much as there will be two roads running through their lands nearly parallel: And whereas the petitioners aforesaid have requested this general assembly to pass a law authorising commissioners to lay out the said road so as to intersect Ellicott's road at the mouth of their lane, at the east end of their dwelling; and the prayer of the petitioners appearing reasonable, therefore,

Preamble.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Thomas Worthington, of Nicholas, Vachel Burgess and Henry Griffith, or any two of them, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners, with full power and authority to confirm, alter or change the aforesaid road.

Commissioners appointed, &c.

III. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall ascertain and value what damages may be sustained by any person or persons through whose lands the said road, if altered or changed, may pass, taking into consideration the advantages or disadvantages, if any, and the same, when so assessed, shall be paid, or secured to be paid, by the said Nancy Gaither, Sarah Gaither and Mary Gaither, to the person or persons entitled to receive the same, before the said road, after it is laid off, shall be opened and cleared, provided, the said road shall not be opened through the gardens, yards or orchards, of any person, without his or her consent.

Damages to be ascertained,
&c.

IV. AND BE IT ENACTED, That all costs and charges which may attend the altering, laying out and opening, the said road, shall be at the expense of the petitioners.

Petitioners to pay, &c.
