

C H A P. XLVI.

An ACT to alter and change the place of holding the Elections in the first election District in Kent County.

Passed 6th of
Jan. 1810.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the petition of Simon Weeks, of the first election district in Kent county, that the place of holding the election in said district is inconvenient to the petitioner, owing to a private family occupying said property; and the prayer of the petitioner appearing reasonable, therefore,

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the judges of the first election district of Kent county be and they are hereby authorised and directed, to hold, in future, the election in said district at such place as may appear to them most convenient.

III. AND BE IT ENACTED, That when the judges aforesaid shall have made choice of a fit and proper place for holding said election, agreeably to the directions of this act, and shall have returned a certificate thereof, under their hands and seals, to the clerk of the county court, to be recorded, the same shall be the place of holding the elections for the first district of Kent county, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

IV. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the clerk shall record said certificate among the records of Kent county.

An ACT to confirm the Title in Richard Flintham to a part of a Tract of Land lying in Cæcil County.

Passed 6th of
Jan. 1810.

WHEREAS Richard Flintham hath, by his petition to this general assembly, represented, that he purchased a part of a tract of land at sheriff's sale, lying and being in Cæcil county, sold to satisfy a debt due from Charles Heath to a certain Robert Milligan, and that the sheriff of said county died a short time after the sale thereof, and before the said Flintham could get from him a deed of conveyance, and hath prayed this general assembly to give him relief in the premises; therefore,

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the title to the part of a tract of land sold as aforesaid, and contained within the metes and bounds, courses and distances, following, to wit: Beginning at a small stone in the state line, and running north, seventy-two degrees west, twenty-five perches and an half to a marked stone, then north, thirty-three and three quarter degrees east, thirty-nine perches and three tenths to a stake, then south, three and a quarter degrees east, thirty-four perches and six tenths to the place of beginning, containing two acres and ninety-five perches, more or less, shall be as fully invested in the said Richard Flintham as if the sheriff of Cæcil county had by deed of bargain and sale conveyed unto him the same.

III. PROVIDED NEVERTHELESS, AND BE IT ENACTED, That this act, nor any clause thereof, shall extend, or be construed to extend, to give to the said Richard Flintham any other or better title than the said Charles Heath had, of, in and to the same, and that all the right, title, interest and claim, of the said Heath to the before described part of a tract of land, shall be transferred and confirmed, and is hereby fully transferred and confirmed, unto the said Richard Flintham, his heirs and assigns, for ever.
