

1809. NOVEMBER.

L A W S OF M A R Y L A N D.

C H A P.
CXV.

shall pass, taking into consideration the advantages and disadvantages, if any, and the same, when so assessed, shall be paid, or secured to be paid, by the person or persons who are interested in having the said road laid out, straightened and amended as aforesaid, or any other person or persons who may think proper to contribute thereto, to the person or persons entitled to receive the same, before they shall proceed to open the said road.

III. AND BE IT ENACTED, That if any person or persons, through whose land the said road shall pass, or his, her or their guardian or trustee, shall conceive himself, herself or themselves, aggrieved by such valuation and assessment of damages by the said commissioners respectively, it shall and may be lawful for any justice of the peace, on his, her or their application, to issue his warrant, under his hand and seal, directed to the sheriff of the county, commanding him to summon twelve disinterested men, qualified by law to serve as jurors in the county court, to meet upon the premises, on a certain day, of which six days notice at least shall be given to the party or parties interested; and the said jurors, when so met, and having each first taken an oath before some justice of the peace, that he will, without favour, affection, prejudice or partiality, assess the damages sustained by the person or persons at whose request such inquisition shall be taken, by reason of opening the said road through his, her or their land, shall thereupon proceed to assess and value the damages accordingly, taking into consideration the advantages and disadvantages, if any, and such inquisition and valuation shall be final and conclusive between the parties respectively; provided, that the said road shall not be opened through the buildings, gardens, yards, meadows or orchards, of any person, without his or her consent.

IV. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the act passed in the year eighteen hundred and four, concerning the said road, and the supplement thereto passed at last fall session, be and they are hereby repealed.

C H A P. CXVI.

Passed 6th of Jan. 1810.

An ACT for the relief of William Sinclair, of the City of Baltimore.

BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That on application of William Sinclair, of the city of Baltimore, to the county court for Baltimore county, by petition, in writing, offering to deliver to the use of his creditors, who reside in Ireland, or with whom he contracted any debt, or to whom he became indebted, prior to his first arrival within the United States, all his property, real, personal or mixed, within the kingdom of Ireland, or within any state, kingdom or country, other than the state of Maryland, to which he is now, or was at any time, entitled unto, together with a list of such creditors, and a list of such property, so far as he can ascertain the same, on oath, annexed to or accompanying such petition, the county court shall direct personal notice of such application to be given to the said creditors, or to as many of them as can be served therewith, or their agent or attorneys, or direct notice of such application to be inserted in some newspaper of the city of Baltimore, for such time as they may think proper; and on the appearance of said creditor, or neglect to appear on notice, at the time or times and place appointed, the county court shall administer to the petitioning debtor the following oath: "I, William Sinclair, do swear, that I will deliver up and convey to my creditors, now residing in Ireland, or with whom I contracted any debt, or to whom I became indebted on or before the — day of —, when I first arrived in the United States of America, in such manner as the county court shall direct, all my property, debts, rights and claims, that I have or claim any title to in Ireland, or in any other kingdom, state or country, except the state of Maryland, or have or claim, or at any time had or claimed, any title to, in possession, reversion or remainder, and that I have not, directly or indirectly, at any time, sold, conveyed, lessened, or at any time brought into this state from any other state or country, any of my property whatsoever, wearing apparel excepted, or disposed of, for the use of any person or persons, or intrusted, any part of my property, debts, rights or claims, to defraud my said creditors, or any of them, or to secure the same to receive or expect any profits, benefits or advantages thereby;" and the said county court shall thereupon release and finally discharge the said William Sinclair from all claims and demands of the said creditors, without their assent to the same, but as to the appointment of a trustee, and in all other respects, subject and according to the provisions of an act passed at November session, eighteen hundred and five, entitled, An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and the several supplements thereto.

II. AND BE IT ENACTED, That nothing herein contained shall be construed in any manner to affect any creditor of the said William Sinclair other than such as are herein before mentioned and described.