

C H A P.
XXV.

XI. AND BE IT ENACTED, That all the said stock to be purchased in virtue of this act for the benefit of the said children, shall stand in the name of the said Thomas Harris, junior, as trustee of the said children, and it shall not be lawful for him or his executors, administrators or assigns, to assign or transfer the same, or any or any part thereof, to any person or persons whatsoever, except under and in virtue of an order of the orphans court aforesaid, for that purpose passed.

XII. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the orphans court aforesaid shall and may, on the arrival at age of the said children, or either of them, or at such other time as the said court may think right and proper, order and direct the said trustee to transfer and assign to the said children, or either of them, or either of their legal representatives, or other person or persons legally entitled to receive the same, the share or portion of the said stock which may be due to the said children, or either of them, or either of their legal representatives, or other person as aforesaid.

XIII. AND BE IT ENACTED, That in case of the death of the said children before their arrival at lawful age as aforesaid, or their dying intestate without issue, the said stock, so to be purchased as aforesaid, and the proceeds arising from the sale of the said real estate, directed to be paid to the said children by this act, shall be considered as a part of the real estate of the said John Gwinn, deceased, and shall descend to his heirs at law and legal representatives, in the same manner as the said real estate would descend if the same had not been sold under and in virtue of this act.

XIV. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the bond which the said trustee shall enter into for the due and faithful performance of his trust as aforesaid, shall be liable and answerable for the due and faithful performance, by the said trustee, for all and every matter and thing directed and required to be performed by him in virtue of this act.

XV. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said trustee shall make report to the orphans court aforesaid, of the stock to be by him purchased as aforesaid, and of the dividends arising therefrom, and he shall, every six months, account with the orphans court, and render a just and true statement of his proceedings in the premises, and on his neglect to do so, his bond as trustee shall be answerable for any damage occasioned by such his neglect; and the orphans court aforesaid may allow the said trustee such commission for his trouble as to them shall appear proper and reasonable.

XVI. AND BE IT ENACTED, That when the said trustee shall, in virtue of the order of the orphans court aforesaid, assign and transfer to the said children, or their legal representatives, or other person or persons entitled to receive the same as aforesaid, the shares and portions of the said stock which may be due as aforesaid, and shall have truly and faithfully accounted for and settled with the orphans court aforesaid, of and concerning the several trusts reposed in him by this act, then the orphans court aforesaid shall order and direct that the said trustee be discharged from all and every the trusts imposed on him by this act, and shall order and direct that the bond which the said trustee shall have entered into be cancelled, and from thenceforth the said trustee shall be discharged accordingly.

XVII. AND BE IT ENACTED, That if the said trustee shall die before the several trusts reposed in him by this act are completed and discharged, then the orphans court aforesaid shall appoint some fit and proper person trustee in his place and stead, who shall give bond, in such penalty and with such security, as the said court shall prescribe and direct, conditioned for the due and faithful performance of the trusts and duties required of, and imposed on, him by this act, and the orders of the orphans court aforesaid, which bond shall be recorded in the said court, and on an attested copy thereof suit may be maintained by any person interested, and such trustee, so to be appointed, shall have all the powers, and be subject to the orders and control of the orphans court aforesaid, in the same manner as the trustee named in this act.
