

C H A P.
LII.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the marriage of Thomas Taylor, and Phœbe Taylor his wife, heretofore solemnized, be, and the same is hereby declared to be, absolutely and to all intents and purposes null and void, and the said Thomas Taylor, and Phœbe his wife, are hereby declared to be divorced a vinculo matrimonii; provided always, that nothing in this act contained shall be construed to illegitimate the children of the said Thomas Taylor, and Phœbe Taylor his wife, born prior to the passage of this act.

C H A P. LIII.

Passed December 23, 1810.

An ACT for the benefit of Doctor James Archer, of Claiborne County, in the Territory of Mississippi.

WHEREAS doctor James Archer hath represented, by his petition to this general assembly, that he is desirous of removing to this state to reside therein, and that being possessed of several slaves he is fearful that by bringing them with him to reside in the state of Maryland they would become entitled to their freedom, and hath prayed that a law may pass for his relief in the premises; therefore,

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said James Archer be and he is hereby authorised and empowered to remove, import and bring into this state, at any time within one year after the passage of this act, such slave or slaves as he may now have a bona fide absolute right unto, and which he removed with him from this state to the Mississippi territory, together with their increase, and none others, and the same to retain as slaves.

III. AND BE IT ENACTED, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to enable the said doctor James Archer to sell or dispose of any slave or slaves, imported by virtue of this act, or their increase, until the said slave or slaves shall have resided within this state three whole years next preceding such sale, except in cases of disposition by last will and testament, and dispositions by law for bona fide debts, or consequent upon intestacy.

C H A P. LIV.

Passed December 23, 1810.

A Further Supplement to an Act, entitled, An Act for the valuation of Real and Personal Property within this State.

BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, the commissioners of the tax for Allegany county shall cause to be entered on their books, all the lots, or parts of lots, of land, westward of Fort Cumberland, which may come within their knowledge, that have been, or hereafter may be, in any manner transferred by any officer or soldier, or where the right of any officer or soldier to any such lots, or parts of lots aforesaid, have been, or hereafter shall or may be, transferred by any sale under any law or laws of the United States, or of this state, and when so entered as aforesaid, and charged in the names of the purchaser or purchasers of said lots, or parts of lots aforesaid, at any such sale or sales, the same shall be subject to, and liable for, the county taxes, as other lands are in Allegany county, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the commissioners of the tax for Allegany county be and they are hereby authorised and empowered, to procure from the marshall of the district of Maryland a list of lands, lots, and parts of lots, sold for the direct tax, and the purchaser or purchasers thereof, the expense of which to be levied on Allegany county as other county charges.

C H A P. LV.

Passed December 23, 1810.

An ACT for founding an Academy at Hagars-Town, in Washington County.

BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in order to the erecting and building a house and other conveniencies, for an academy in Washington county, the persons herein after named shall have full power to purchase one or more acres of land on or adjoining Hagar's town, in Washington county, to wit: Richard Pindell, John T. Mason, Samuel Ringgold, Samuel Hughes, junior, Charles Carroll, Upton Lawrence, Frisby Tilghman, Otho H. Williams, Moses Tabbs, William Heyser, John Kennedy, John Harry, Jacob Zellar, Christian Hager, John I. Stull, Jacob Schnebly, Thomas B. Hall, John Ragan, senior, Matthias Shaffner, Alexander Neill and Frederick Dorsey, who shall be and they are hereby appointed trustees, to act as such until the first Tuesday in October next, and until a new election of trustees agreeable to the future provisions of this act;