An ACT for the establishment of a School in Baltimore County, by the name of Malin School.

Passed December 25, 1810.

WHEREAS William Malin, an alien, heretofore residing in Baltimore county, died possessed of an equitable interest, in fee-simple, in and to one hundred and sixty and three quarter acres of land, being part of a tract lying in the county aforesaid, named Flagg Meadows, which said land had been purchased by the said Malin from a certain Harry D. Gough, now deceased, on a credit, he the said Gough retaining the legal title therein until the debt be satisfied, which still remains due to the estate of the said Gough: And whereas the said Malin did make and execute his last will and testament, by which the said equitable interest is directed to be sold, and a portion of the money arising therefrom to be applied towards building and supporting a school in the neighbourhood of said land, which said devise is void, the said Malin, for want of a naturalization, being incapable to purchase and hold land except to and for the use of the state of Maryland; but this general assembly anxious at all times to assist in the promotion of learning, and being willing to release its right in and to the said land for the purpose of carrying into effect the object of said will; therefore,

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Jonathan Parish, Robert Davis, Stephen Parish, Thomas Jordan and Joseph Willis, and their successors in office, duly elected as herein after set forth, be, and they are hereby declared to be, one community, corporation and body politic, for ever hereafter, by the name and style of The President and Trustees of the Malin School, and by that name they shall be and are hereby made-capable in law to have and hold by gift, purchase or devise, real, personal or mixed property, in fee-simple, for a term of years, life or otherwise, and the same to use, grant, demise, alien or dispose of, in such manner as the said trustees may judge most conducive to the benefit of said institution, subject nevertheless to the following provisions, terms, conditions and regulations:

1st. All property belonging to, or hereafter to be acquired by, the said corporation, shall be held in the name of the president and trustees of Malin school, and no part thereof, except the interest, rent, or income, shall be disposed of by the said trustees but with the consent and approbation of the levy court of Baltimore county, who with the concurrence of the said president and trustees, or a majority of the whole number, may sell and dispose of said property in such manner, and for such purposes, as may seem most conducive to the good of said institution, the evidence of which consent on the part of the levy court to be the signature of their clerk to any deed, deeds or transfers, grounded on the previous consent of the court to the said transfer, and an entry on their proceedings to that effect, but nothing herein contained is intended to interfere with the execution of any trust which may be annexed to a gift hereafter to be made to the said corporation.

2d. They shall report annually to the levy court the state of their school during the preceding year and the manner in which all monies coming into their hands have been expended.

3d. They shall appoint a treasurer, who shall give good and sufficient security for his faithful performance, and they shall also appoint and have the control over the teachers of every description, and manage the school in such manner as to them shall seem fit.

III. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the levy court shall annually, at their session when the levy is laid, make a new appointment of trustees to said school, but they may, in their discretion, re-elect the old trustees, or any one or more of them, and should a vacancy or vacancies occur at the board by death, resignation or disqualification, before the expiration of the year, the remaining trustees may fill up the same for the remaining part of the said year.

IV. AND BE IT ENACTED, That not less than three members shall be a quorum, and when so assembled a majority of voices present shall be sufficient for the transaction of all business except the transfer of principal estate as herein before provided.
