An ACT for the relief of John Lyon, of Frederick County.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the petition of John Lyon, of Frederick county, that the said John Lyon and a certain George Sheetinghelm, jointly purchased of a certain Richard Galin Stockett, a tract of land lying in the county aforesaid, called Middle Plantation, containing seventy-seven acres, and that on or about the month of September, eighteen hundred and eight, they received a deed of conveyance in fee-simple for the same, and that since the said conveyance the grantees therein named have divided the said tract of land between them, and have actually executed deeds to each other for their respective parts of the said land so divided, which deeds bear date on the twenty-fourth day of November, eighteen hundred and eight, and have been duly recorded: And whereas it is also represented to this general assembly, that the said John Lyon, at the times of executing the said several conveyances, was not a citizen of the United States, but that the said John Lyon has since been duly naturalized according to the laws of the United States, and hath prayed that a law might be passed to confirm the said conveyance;

II. BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said several deeds of conveyance shall have the same operation and effect in law, to vest the estate and interest in the grantees therein named, as if the said John Lyon at the several periods of executing the same had been duly naturalized as a citizen of the United States.

An ACT respecting the issuing of Writs of Executions out of the Court of Appeals.

WHEREAS doubts are entertained whether sufficient power and authority are given by law for the issuing of writs of execution out of the court of appeals, upon judgments or decrees which have been, and which may be, rendered in the said court, held for the western and eastern shores respectively; and to remove such doubts,

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That where any writ of execution hath issued, or shall issue, out of the court of appeals, upon any judgment or decree which hath been or which may hereafter be rendered in the said court, held for the western and eastern shores respectively, such execution, and the proceedings had and to be had thereon, shall be valid and effectual in law, to all intents and purposes whatsoever, in the same manner as any execution which hath issued, or may issue, out of any court of law in this state, upon a judgment rendered, or to be rendered, in such court, and that the said court of appeals be and hereby is vested with the like and similar powers with respect to writs of execution which the late general court possessed or exercised.
