CHAPTER 94.

An act to authorise Edward Barton and William Kelley to alter and change the public road therein mentioned, in Caroline county.

Passed Dec. 27, 1811.

WHEREAS, It is represented to this General Assembly by the petition of Edward Barton and William Kelley, through whose lands the public road now runs, leading from Hunting creek mill to Fowling creek mill, that one of the petitioners, namely, Edward Barton, suffers great inconvenience in consequence of said road running through his farm, which obliges him to keep three gates on said road, they therefore think the turning said public road round the said Edward Barton's farm would be of no disadvantage to the public:—Therefore,

Preamble.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said Edward Barton and William Kelley, are hereby authorised to alter and change so much of the public road leading from Hunting creek mill in Caroline county, to Fowling creek, as runs from the said William Kelley's through the said Edward Barton's farm, to the main road leading from Fowling creek mill to Dover bridge, viz; beginning at the end of said William Kelley's lane, and running round the said Edward Barton's farm, as now laid out and cleared, until it intersects the said main road leading from Fowling creek mill to Dover bridge.

A certain portion of said road may be changed.

AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said Edward Barton and William Kelley, shall cause the location of said road so as aforesaid described, to be returned to the levy court of Caroline county, with all convenient speed; and after such road shall be surveyed and laid

Location shall be returned to levy court. &c. Road shall be completed at the expense of parties applying
