

CHAPTER 98.

1811.

An act for the relief of Littleton Dennis Teackle, of Somerset county.

Passed Dec. 27,
1811.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for Somerset county court, or any one of the judges thereof, during the recess of the said court, to extend to the said Littleton Dennis Teackle, all the benefits, advantages and provisions of the act passed November session eighteen hundred and five, entitled, "An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," and its several supplements, without being required to produce to the said court, or to the said judge in the recess of the said court, the assent, in writing, of so many of his creditors as have due to them, in amount, two thirds of the debts owing by the said Littleton Dennis Teackle, or without being required to produce proof to the said court, or judge, (as the case may be,) that the said Littleton Dennis Teackle has given the notice required by the said act, and the several supplements thereto.

Benefits of insolvent laws granted.

CHAPTER 99.

An act for the relief of Henry Schræder, of the city of Baltimore.

Passed Dec. 27,
1811.

WHEREAS, It appears that John Hammond, late of Baltimore county, deceased, became possessed of about forty-two acres of land, part of a tract called Welsh's Adventure, lying in Baltimore county aforesaid, on which was reserved an annual rent of one guinea per acre, payable to William Russell and Frances his wife, and their heirs; and that the said John Hammond, in his life time, sold or underleased to Henry Schræder, of the city of Baltimore, twenty-eight acres and seventeen perches of the said land, as appears by five assignments thereof from said Hammond to said Schræder, reserving the same rent of one guinea per acre, payable to himself and his assigns, instead of making the same payable to the said William Russell and wife, and their heir; And whereas, The said William Russell and wife are both dead, and by a decree of the honorable the chancellor of Maryland, bearing date on the nineteenth day of October, in the year eighteen hundred and nine, all that part of the real estate of said Russell and wife, which had been leased and assigned to John Ham-
