

1811.

Commissioners appointed, who are authorised to ascertain the boundaries of certain lots. They shall make a return of proceedings and a plot, to be recorded.

In case no action be brought within a certain time, said land shall be confirmed to the vestry, may be confirmed, and commissioners be appointed to settle the boundaries thereof:—Therefore,

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That James Steel, John Ashmore, Richard Kenley, John Quarles and Reuben Stump, be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners, and they, or a majority of them, are hereby authorised to settle and ascertain from the best evidence that can be procured, the original location and boundaries of the lot or lots of land, or of such part (if not the whole) as have been in possession of the vestry of St. George's Parish in Harford county, upon which the Deer Creek Chapple stands; and the said commissioners are hereby vested with all and singular the powers given by the act of seventeen hundred and eighty-six, to commissioners for marking and bounding land, and the several supplements thereto; and that they shall proceed in the same manner as by said act directed, and make a correct return of their proceeding with a plot of such land as by them so found, to the clerk of Harford county court, there to be recorded.

AND BE IT ENACTED, That in case no suit or action be brought within the time limited by the act aforesaid, for making and bounding land, to call in question the adjudication of the commissioners, the marking and bounding said land as aforesaid, and the record thereof shall be conclusive evidence of the original location thereof; or if the adjudication of the commissioners shall be confirmed by verdict of a jury in any suit as aforesaid, the adjudication of the commissioners in the point confirmed by the jury, and between the parties, and those claiming under them, shall conclude to every intent and purpose, and the said land shall be forever thereafter secured and confirmed to the vestry of said Parish and their successors, in as full and ample a manner as if a deed or deeds had been regularly executed and recorded therefor.
