

1811.

shall and may be lawful for the said Elisha Fergusson, at all times hereafter, to be called and known by, and hold and use the name of Elisha Berry, and by that name to sue and be sued in any court of law or equity; and it shall and may be lawful for the issue of the said Elisha Fergusson, born, or hereafter to be born, to take upon themselves, and each of them the sur-name of Berry, instead of the sur-name of Fergusson.

Lawful acts of him and his issue made valid.

AND BE IT ENACTED, That all securities, promises, contracts, assurances, deeds and lawful acts whatsoever heretofore made or done, or hereafter to be made or done, by or to the said Elisha Fergusson, by the name of Elisha Berry, or heretofore made, or hereafter to be made or done, by or to the issue of said Elisha Fergusson, born, or hereafter to be born, by the sur-name of Berry, shall be of the same force and effect, and equally avail to all intents and purposes, as if the name of Elisha Berry had been the true and proper name of the said Elisha Fergusson.

CHAPTER 126.

Passed Dec. 27, 1811.

A Supplement to an act entitled, An act for the relief of Lemuel Warfield, of the city of Baltimore.

Benefits of the insolvent laws granted.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for the judges of Baltimore county court, or any one of them, during the recess of said court, to extend to the said Lemuel Warfield, without any previous notice of his application therefor, all the benefits, advantages and provisions of the act passed at November session eighteen hundred and five, entitled, "An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," and the several supplements thereto.

CHAPTER 127.

Passed Dec. 27, 1811.

An act for the benefit of the widow and infant children of Thomas Gibson, late of Frederick county, deceased.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, it hath been represented to this General Assembly by the petition of Anne Gibson, of Frederick county, that her late husband, Thomas Gibson, late of Frederick county, deceased, by his last will and tes-
