CHAPTER 133.

An act for opening and extending Saint Paul's street in the city and precincts of Baltimore.

Passed Dec. 27, 1811.

WHEREAS, Sundry persons of the city and precincts of Baltimore have represented to this General Assembly, that the beauty and convenience of the said city and precincts require the opening and extending of Saint Paul's street, which is situated partly in the city and partly in the precincts, and have accordingly petitioned for the same:—Therefore Preamble.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the commissioners of the city of Baltimore shall be, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to open and extend Saint Paul's street, commencing at its intersection with North street as laid down on a plot of that part of the city and precincts made by Smiths, and Williams, and recorded in Baltimore county court, and running east forty-nine and one half feet wide until it connects with Fish street, and so that the south side of Saint Paul's street shall intersect Fish street by a straight line running east; and the said street when so opened and extended, and the valuation and assessments herein-after directed to be made shall have taken place, shall be deemed and taken, and is hereby declared to be a public street and highway forever thereafter; and the said commissioners are hereby required to return a plot ascertaining the limits and extent of the said street when so opened and extended, to the register of the city of Baltimore, who shall receive and file the same as part of the plot of the city and precincts of Baltimore.

City commissioners authorised to open and extend said street its width, direction, &c. They shall return a plot to the register to be filed.

AND BE IT ENACTED, That the sheriff of Baltimore county, after having given at least ten days notice in one of the newspapers of the city of Baltimore, shall, at any time before the first Monday of

Sheriff shall summon twelve freeholders to value damages. Their duties, &c
