

1812.

committee for transacting all general and necessary business of the said seminary, and making temporary rules for the management thereof; and also by the said ordinances to delegate to the professors and teachers, such powers and authorities as they shall think expedient for the standing government and discipline of the said seminary, and the execution of the regulations thereof; and also, by the said ordinances, to make such regulations for the directions, visitation and examinations of the said seminary, and the students and scholars therein, as shall best promote the important objects of the institution; Provided always, That the said ordinances be not repugnant to the constitution and the laws of this state.

Their stated and special meetings. They shall have power to appoint a president, treasurer, &c.

6. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said trustees and their successors, or a majority of them, shall meet at least twice in every year, in stated semi-annual meetings, to be appointed by their own ordinances, and at such other times as by their said ordinances, or by their own adjournments they may direct; and when so assembled, they shall have power from time to time to appoint a president, treasurer and secretary; to make contracts with the professors or teachers, relative to the instruction of the scholars to be placed under their care, and for the payment of their salaries; to examine the progress of the students and scholars in their learning; to hear and determine on all complaints and appeals, and upon all matters touching the discipline and government of the said academy, and the execution of their ordinances; and generally to manage the estate and concerns of the said seminary in such manner as they shall deem best for the advancement and advantage of the institution.

CHAPTER 160.

Passed Jan. 4, 1812. A further Supplement to an act entitled, An act relating to the public roads in the several counties therein mentioned.

Overseers of public roads in Caroline county authorised to collect fines from persons neglecting to repair roads—

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be the duty of the several overseers of the public roads in Caroline county, from and after the first Monday in May next, to collect from all persons neglecting to work on the public roads in said county, the fines imposed by the act to which this is a further supplement, for such neglect;