

for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this act, or of the original act, or of the supplements thereto, shall be held at the alms-house in the said county, except such meetings as may be necessary for the settlement and passing their accounts with the levy court.

1812.

at the alms-house, except on passing their accounts with the levy court.

AND BE IT ENACTED, That the clerk of said court shall be allowed twenty-five cents for each certificate of appointment which he shall make out and deliver to the sheriff; and the sheriff shall be allowed fifty cents for the delivery of each of the said certificates to the persons appointed; all of which charges and allowances are to be levied, collected and paid over, as other county charges are.

Clerk's and sheriff's compensations for making out and delivering certificates.

AND BE IT ENACTED, That any thing in the said original act or the supplements thereto, which is repugnant to, or inconsistent with the provisions of this act, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed.

Repealing section.

CHAPTER 163.

A supplement to an act entitled, An act to establish a Bank, and incorporate a company under the name of the Elkton Bank of Maryland.

Passed, Jan. 4, 1812.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That so much of the act to which this is a supplement as prevents the president and directors of the Elkton Bank of Maryland from issuing notes or bills obligatory for a less sum than five dollars, be, and the same is hereby repealed; any thing in the said act to the contrary notwithstanding; Provided always, That nothing in this act contained shall authorise the issuing of any note for a less sum than three dollars.

Certain part of the original act repealed under a certain provision.

CHAPTER 164.

An act for the opening and extending of Pratt street, in the city of Baltimore.

Passed Jan. 4, 1812.

WHEREAS, Sundry persons, inhabitants of the city of Baltimore, have represented to this General Assembly, that the health and convenience of the said city would be greatly promoted by the opening and extending the said street, which is at present intersected by several docks, and obstructed by other impediments; And whereas, This General Assembly

Preamble.