CHAPTER 203.

Passed Jan. 7, 1812. An act to correct a mistake in the Deed therein mentioned.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, it is represented to this General Assembly, that Aquilla Galloway, late of Baltimore county, deceased, purchased of the intendant of the revenue of this state, part of a tract of land called "Sewell," lying and being in the county aforesaid; which said land was conveyed to the said Galloway by John Rogers, the then chancellor of this state, by deed bearing date the fifteenth day of December seventeen hundred and eighty-seven, for the quantity of one hundred and eighty-six and one half acres of land more or less; in which deed it appears there was a mistake made, in stating that the fourth line of that part of said land ran south thirty-eight degrees and thirty minutes, east seventy-four perches, instead of north thirty-eight degrees and thirty minutes, east seventy-four perches; and it is further represented, that agreeably to the courses of the deed, there is no more than one hundred and three acres; and that the said land has always been held in the same manner as if the said fourth line had been expressed north thirty-eight degrees, and thirty minutes east, and which course gives the quantity of land as expressed in the deed; and it is further represented that the said land has been sold by a decree of the chancellor, bearing date the sixteenth day of November eighteen hundred and ten; and it appearing reasonable that the mistake in the said deed should be corrected:—Therefore,

Heirs or purchaser entitled to hold certain land.

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the heirs of Aquilla Galloway, or the purchaser or purchasers under the decree of the chancellor aforesaid, be, and they are hereby entitled to
