No. 56.

Whereas, It is represented to this General Assembly by the petition of James Brown and James Butcher, that judgments have been obtained in Queen Anne's county court at the last October term, by the levy court of said county against James Hall and Anna Hackett, surviving executrix of James Hackett, as securities of John B. Hackett, late collector of the taxes of said county for the year eighteen hundred and one, and also against James Brown and Elizabeth Devorix, administratrix of William H. Devorix, as securities of Richard E. Harrison, late collector of taxes for said county, for the years eighteen hundred and two and eighteen hundred and three respectively; and it appears that part of the sum of money for which said judgments have been rendered is claimed to be due on account of monies levied for keeping in repair the public roads in said county for the years aforesaid; and it appearing doubtful whether the whole of said sums of money are justly due:—Therefore,
