provisions in said act relative to the block, docks and lots, and to the extension of said street, shall be in force as respects the block, docks and lots as herein directed to be laid out, and to the extension of Pratt street now directed to be made. And the assessors shall, in assessing all damages, have respect to the changes made by this act.

Provisions contrary to this act repealed.

6. AND BE IT ENACTED, That all the provisions of the act and the supplement to which this is a further supplement, which are inconsistent with this supplement, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 9.

Passed June 18, 1812.

A further supplement to the act entitled, An act to regulate and discipline the militia of this state.

Enrollments.

SEC. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That each commanding officer of a company shall make out and return a correct enrollment of his company to the commanding officer of the regiment or battalion to which he belongs, whenever required; and upon refusal or neglect, to be subject to a fine not exceeding thirty dollars, unless he can make a reasonable excuse, to be approved of by a regimental court-martial.

Draught—who shall be liable.

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That all able bodied white male citizens in this state, between the ages of eighteen and forty-five years, except ministers of the gospel, and except those exempted by the act of congress, shall be liable to stand their draught, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Certificates for inability.

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That all certificates heretofore granted for corporeal inability to persons liable to do militia duty, are hereby declared to be void and of no effect; and that all surgeons of regiments and extra-battalions and their mates, who are hereby empowered to grant certificates of corporeal inability, before they proceed to grant any certificate of corporeal inability to any person liable to do militia duty, shall first take the following oath or affirmation, before some justice of the peace, to wit: "I do solemnly swear, or affirm, (as the case may be,) that I will not grant a certificate of corporeal inability to any person liable to do militia duty, through favour or affection; or who in my opinion is not justly entitled to the same, or withhold it through prejudice or ill-will."
