permission of the acting superintendant of the said road, throw out upon the road, or within the limits of the road, and suffer to remain for the space of one day, any mould, dirt, weeds, or rubbish of any kind, such person being convicted thereof by the evidence of one or more credible disinterested witnesses, before any justice of the peace of the county, he or she shall be adjudged by the said justice to pay a fine not exceeding ten dollars, to be recovered with costs, as sums of a similar amount are recoverable; which fine when recovered, shall be paid to the treasurer of the company, for the use of the said company.

Drivers of waggons, &c. shall keep the right hand in a passing direction.

29. AND BE IT ENACTED, That all waggons and drivers of carriages of all kinds, whether of burthen or pleasure, using the said road, shall, except when passing by a carriage of slower draught, keep their horses and carriages on the right hand side of the road in the passing direction, leaving the other side of the said road free and clear for other carriages to pass and re-pass; and if any driver shall offend against this provision, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of five dollars to any person who shall be obstructed in his passage and will sue for the same, to be recovered with costs, before any justice, in the same manner that debts of a similar amount are recovered.

Persons living on said road—their toll.

30 AND BE IT ENACTED, That it shall not be lawful for the said company to ask, demand or receive of, or from any person or persons living on or adjacent to the said road, within three miles of any of the said gates or turnpikes, any toll for passing the said gate more than once in twenty four hours.

Grants, demises, &c.

31. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said president and managers of the said turnpike road, for the time being, shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to grant, demise and to farm-let to any person or persons with whom they can agree, the tolls and duties which they, by virtue of this act or their own by-laws are authorised to demand and receive for passage in, upon and along the said road, at any such gate or turn-pike, over or upon the same, or any part of the same, for any term not exceeding seven years, under such rents, reservations and conditions as the said president and managers at any meeting of their board shall agree upon, which grants and demises shall have the construction, force and effect as other like grants and demises made between private persons have and receive at law.
