

1812.

Money arising from the sale—how to be applied.

Orphans' court may require trustees to give bond—bond shall be recorded.

the right and title to the said real estate, which was in the said William Farquhar in his life time, and in his son James Farquhar, since the decease of his father.

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the money arising from the sale of the real estate of James Farquhar as aforesaid, after paying the debts of said James Farquhar as aforesaid, shall be applied by the trustees to the maintenance and support of James Farquhar and his family, under the direction of the orphans' court of Frederick county, which is hereby empowered to take the same under their direction.

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the orphans' court of Frederick county, may require the said trustees to give bond with security to the State of Maryland, in such sum as they may think necessary, to secure the faithful performance of the trust hereby committed to them, which bond shall be recorded in the office of the register of wills of said county, and suits may be instituted and prosecuted on said bond, in the same manner as on bonds of a similar nature in said office.

CHAPTER 99.

Passed Dec. 19, 1812.

An act for the relief and benefit of Sarah Stinchcomb.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, Sarah Stinchcomb, of the city of Annapolis, hath set forth by her petition, that a certain John Ross, of said city, departed this life some time since, and that he was the son of the said Sarah Stinchcomb, not born in legal wedlock, and that her son aforesaid died without issue, by reason whereof the property at her death will become the property of this State, and prays that the State's right be relinquished, the prayer of the petitioner appearing reasonable: Therefore,

Right of the State relinquished.

SEC. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That any right that the State may have at this time, or may hereafter have, to the real and personal estate of John Ross, late of the city of Annapolis, deceased, be, and the same is hereby relinquished to Sarah Stinchcomb, of the city of Annapolis, the mother of John Ross aforesaid, any law, usage or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Rights of individuals not affected by this act.

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the provisions of this act shall in no wise be construed to affect the right or interest of any individual, interested in any