CHAPTER 101.

An act to alter and amend a certain road in Harford county.

Passed Dec. 19, 1812.

WHEREAS, It is represented to this General Assembly by the petition of sundry inhabitants of Harford county, that the road leading from Winter's Run, near Price's mill, to the White House, passes over several hills that are so steep that it is with difficulty a loaded waggon can ascend them, and prays that the said road may be altered so as to pass by the mill of the said Price, and thence in a direct line so as to fall into the old road near to a small house owned by a certain Walter Bull, and have stated in their petition that no charge would be made by land-holders for the land over which the said road would pass: Therefore,

Preamble.

SEC. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John Moores, William M. Math and Samuel Bradford be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners to alter and amend the
