

Monday, in each and every year hereafter, or as soon thereafter as conveniently may be; at which election, each contributor, or person holding an interest in said property, shall be entitled to a vote; and for the purpose of ascertaining who are so entitled, the trustees shall record, in a book for that purpose, the names of all persons who have contributed to, or associated for the purpose of purchasing the property aforesaid; and which said right to vote, and interest in said property, may be assigned or transferred, by a simple transfer or assignment in writing, under the hand of the party, attested by one witness or more.

MAY SESS.
1813.

3. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said trustees now appointed, and who may hereafter be elected, or a majority of them, and their successors, from time to time, as occasion may require, may and shall meet together to transact the business and superintend and protect the property put under their trust and care, and shall make, constitute and alter such rules and orders for regulating their own proceedings, and the management of the temporal concerns of the Meeting House, as they shall judge most fit: Provided, That such rules and regulations be not repugnant to the constitution and laws of this state.

Meeting of trustees-- their powers.

Proviso

CHAPTER 8.

An act to authorise William Francis Lewis, former collector of Calvert county, to complete his collections.

Passed May 24, 1813.

WHEREAS, it is represented to this general assembly of Maryland, by the petition of William Francis Lewis, former collector of Calvert county, that from various circumstances he has not been able to complete his collection within the time limited: Therefore,

Preamble

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said William Francis Lewis be, and he is hereby authorised, to collect until the first day of May, eighteen hundred fourteen, all balances due him as collector of Calvert county, in the same manner as he could or might have done within the time limited by law, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Time for the collection of his dues extended.

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said William Francis Lewis, before he derives any benefit from or under this act, shall lodge a copy of his collection books in the clerk's office of Calvert county, to be

A copy of his books shall be lodged in the county court office.