CHAPTER 16.

An act for the benefit and relief of William Harrison (of James,) of Talbot County.

Passed May 29, 1813.

WHEREAS, it is represented to this general assembly, by the petition of William Harrison (of James,) and Henry Colston, of Talbot county, that they have been engaged in contract with a certain Samuel Colston, late of Dorchester county, deceased, for the purchase and sale of several tracts of land, to wit: a tract of land called, "Tootle's Venture," supposed to contain two hundred and twenty acres, one-fourth part of which the said Samuel Colston held in right of his wife, and the other three-fourths by actual purchase; that the whole of said land called "Tootle's Venture" was bargained and sold to William Harrison (of James,) who has complied with his contract, but in consequence of the sudden and unexpected death of the said Samuel Colston and his wife, no deed of conveyance has been made. It is also represented by Henry Colston, that he contracted with the said Samuel Colston to convey to the said Catharine Colston, the wife of the said Samuel, and her heirs, forever, a certain tract of land called "Pilgrimage," containing one hundred and fifty acres, more or less, in lieu of the right of the said Catharine Colston to the one-fourth part of the said tract of land called, "Tootle's Venture;" which said land the said Henry Colston is ready and willing to convey in fee-simple unto the only heir and legal representative of
