

DEB. SESS.
1813.

Repugnant
acts repealed.

Proviso:

When to take effect.

lect to be recovered as other fines are directed to be recovered by this act.

10. AND BE IT ENACTED, That from and after the first Monday of April next, all and every act or acts, or part of any act or acts of assembly, and every clause and section thereof which are repugnant to and inconsistent with the provisions of this act be, and the same are hereby repealed. Provided nevertheless, That nothing herein contained shall be construed or taken to affect any private act or acts of assembly granted upon the application of any particular individual, or the act of assembly passed at October session, in the year one thousand seven hundred and fifty-three, entitled, an act for repairing the public roads in this province, or any act or acts of assembly for the building or repairing of any bridge or bridges that are built or maintained at the public or county charge

11. AND BE IT ENACTED, That this act shall commence and take effect on the first Monday in April next.

CHAPTER 75.

Passed Jan.
17, 1814.

Preamble.

An act for the relief of William Patterson, William Smith, William Cooke and others.

WHEREAS William Patterson, Thomas Hollingsworth, Samuel Hollingsworth, Edward Pannell, George Brown, William Smith, James A. Buchanan, Samuel Smith, Hercules Courtney, Robert Oliver, (for himself and the estate of John O'Donnell,) Archibald Stewart, John Hollins, Alexander M'Kim, James Hindman, William Cooke, Mark Pringle, Samuel Owens, (executor of Jeremiah Yellott,) Elizabeth Dall, John E. Howard, and James Priestley, have by their petition to this General Assembly set forth, that on or about the seventh day of January in the year seventeen hundred and ninety-nine, the petitioners and others purchased a certain tenement and lot in St. Pauls lane in the city of Baltimore, known and distinguished by the name of number fifteen, for the purpose of establishing an academy in said city, under the direction of a certain James Priestley, which academy is no longer carried on in consequence of the removal of the said James Priestley out of the state of Maryland; that several of those originally interested in the purchase of the said tenement and lot have sold out their interests therein to the petitioners who are now the sole proprietors thereof, and that John O'Donnell, James Dall and Jeremiah Yellott who were original proprietors are since dead, and their interest in said property has descended to their representatives, some of whom are infants, and that considerable sums are necessary to be expended to keep the said property which is no longer wanted for the purposes for which it was originally purchased, and that it will not rent for the interest of the