CHAPTER 111.

An act for the relief of Anne Mackie.

WHEREAS Robert Gilmore of the city of Baltimore, by his petition to this General Assembly has set forth, that he is the surviving executor of the last will and testament of Ebenezer Mackie deceased, that the said Ebenezer Mackie devised his whole estate to his wife Anne Mackie, that the said Anne Mackie has since become a lunatic, and is now residing abroad in great poverty, and in a state of hopeless lunacy, that among the property so devised there was a lot situate and lying in Baltimore county, being part of a tract of land called Upton Court, known and distinguished on a plat thereof by the number ninety-two; that the said lot of ground is altogether unproductive to the said Anne Mackie, who stands in great need of the proceeds of the same for her subsistence in her present deplorable situation, and has prayed that a law may pass authorising the said Robert Gilmore to sell the said lot of ground, and to apply the proceeds of the said sale to the support of the said Anne Mackie, and the same being reasonable; Therefore,

Passed Jan.
26, 1814.
