CHAPTER 17.

An act to change a part of the public road leading from Blackwater river to the head of Hungar river, in Dorchester county.

Passed Jan. 7th
1815.

WHEREAS, It is represented to this general assembly by the petition of Joshua Meekins, of Dorchester county, that a part of the public road leading from Blackwater river to the head of Hungar river in said county is capable of being changed and altered so as to relieve the said petitioner and a certain Thomas H. Meekins, a minor, from much of the inconvenience and injury to which they are subjected by reason of the said road's passing through their plantations, and at the same time to shorten its distance. That in the proposed alteration they are the only proprietors whose lands will be affected; but in consequence of the minority of the said Thomas H. Meekins, and his incapability to assent, the levy court of said county have no power to permit the said road to be changed or altered; for the purpose of giving the said levy court adequate powers in the premises,

Preamble.

SEC. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for the levy court of Dorchester county, in their discretion, upon the application of the said Joshua Meekins, to permit the said road to be changed and altered, and in all respects to use and exercise the same discretion, powers and authorities in the premise as if the said minor were of full age, and did actually assent to the said change and alteration; Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be

Road may be changed.
