

14. AND BE IT ENACTED, That if the government of the United States do not accept and provide for the whole of the force hereby proposed to be raised, but will agree to accept and provide for a smaller force; in that case there shall be raised such force as said government will accept and provide for, and instead of the officers herein intended to be appointed, only such and so many shall be appointed as the governor and council shall deem suitable to such force.

DEC Sess.
1814.
Government not accepting.

CHAPTER 115.

An act for the relief of the persons therein mentioned of Anne Arundel county. Passed Feb. 1, 1815.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the levy court of Anne Arundel county be, and they are hereby authorised and empowered (so long as they shall see fit so to do) to assess and levy at their levy court annually, on the assessable property of said county, a sum of money not exceeding sixty dollars, for the maintenance of Richard Allen, and Cassander his wife; thirty dollars for Elizabeth Bryan, and her infant children; thirty dollars for Singleton Warfield; and thirty dollars for Sarah Carman, to be collected as other county charges are, and by the collector paid over to the persons respectively entitled to receive the same. Sums to be levied.

CHAPTER 116.

An act to authorise the lottery therein mentioned. Passed Feb. 1, 1815.
House of industry.

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Mayor and city council of Baltimore be, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to propose and adopt a lottery in one or more classes for the purpose of raising a sum not exceeding thirty thousand dollars, for the purpose of procuring a lot of ground and suitable buildings, to be called a house of industry, for employing in some useful manner the poor of said city or precincts, and affording them relief by such employment; and to adopt such rules and regulations for the admission of the poor therein, for their employment and support whilst there, and for the general direction and government of said house as shall be from time to time found necessary and proper.

2. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said mayor and city council shall take a bond or bonds in such amount and with such security as they may approve, from the managers of said lottery before the sale of any tickets therein, conditioned for the payment of all prizes that may be drawn in the same according to the scheme or terms thereof, and for the payment over to the said mayor and city council of the money to be raised thereby. Bond of managers.
