

its centre line, in the middle of the Frederick turnpike road, exactly at the highest point or most elevated spot of said Frederick Turnpike Road, westwardly from the Culvert, just beyond Konig's fence, and running from the said center line of the Calverton Turnpike the following courses, viz. north fifty two degrees, west ninety perches; north eighty and an half degrees, west eleven perches; north fifty six and a quarter degrees, west five perches nine links; north forty five degrees, west five perches thirteen links; north thirty three and a quarter degrees, eleven perches eleven links to the center of the abutment of the bridge building by said company over Gwynn's run, the said road occupying a space for breadth, of twenty five feet on each side of the said center line, so as to make the same in the whole fifty feet broad; which said short courses departing from the aforesaid straight line of north fifty two degrees, west ninety perches, the said James Carroll may hereafter with the consent of said company, if he see fit, reduce to one line by carrying forward and continuing the said ninety perch line to the bridge aforesaid, the said Carroll reserving to himself and his assigns the right of quarrying any stone which may be left within the lines of the said Calverton Turnpike east of the said short courses, and above the grade of the said road after the said company have stoned the same, from the Frederick Turnpike to the lands of Dennis A. Smith.

DEC. SESS
1815.

4. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said proprietors of the said five mill seats or mills, their heirs and successors be, and they are hereby incorporated a body politic, by the name and style of The President and Managers of the Calverton Turnpike Road, and by the same name the said proprietors and their successors shall have succession during the continuance of this incorporation, and shall have all the privileges and franchises of or incident to a corporation, with power to make such by laws for the regulation of all matters and things as may relate to the said turnpike road, and also to sue and be sued, answer and be answered, to make a seal and alter and renew the same, according to their will and pleasure; Provided nevertheless, that the powers vested in the said company by this act of incorporation shall not extend to any other object than the said road, and providing for keeping the same in good repair; And provided also, that the owner or joint owners of each mill or mill seat, shall be deemed to be the owner of one fifth part of the stock or capital of said turnpike road company, and that the owner or joint owners of each of the said mills or mill seats shall have one vote at all the meetings of said company, either for choosing officers or for the transaction of any other business, which the said company may be competent to do under this act, and it is hereby expressly declared that the qualification to vote at all such meetings shall vest in the owner or joint owners of said mills or mill seats or their attorney duly authorised, and that if any of the said owners shall at any time hereafter sell or otherwise dispose of their interest in any of said mills or mill seats, his her or their right to said road shall thereupon cease and become the right and interest of his, her or their successor.

Style—powers.

Provisos.

5. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said company shall on the first Monday in April next, and on the first Monday in April in each and every year thereafter, meet at the upper mill

Choice of President
Managers &c.
—by laws.