

DEC. SESS,
1815.

Grievances.

5. AND BE IT ENACTED, That if any person or persons through whose lands the said road shall pass, or his, her or their guardian, or representative shall conceive himself or herself aggrieved by such valuation and assesment of damages by said commissioners, it shall and may be lawful for any justice of the peace, on his or her application to issue his warrant directed to the constable of the hundred, commanding him to summon twelve disinterested men, qualified to serve as jurors in the county court, to meet upon the premises on a certain day, of which six days notice at least shall be given to the parties interested; and the said jurors when so met, (and having each taken an oath before some justice of the peace, that he will without favor, affection, prejudice or partiality, assess the damages sustained by the person or persons at whose request such inquisition shall be taken, by reason of opening the said road through his, her or their land) shall thereupon proceed to assess and value the damages accordingly; and such inquisition and valuation shall be final and conclusive between the parties respectively; Provided, that the said road shall not be opened through the buildings, gardens, yard or orchard of any person without his or her consent.

Proviso:

CHAPTER. 190.

Passed Jan,
29, 1816.

An act to incorporate a company to make the several turnpike roads therein mentioned.

Directors,

Sec. 1. BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a company be incorporated to make a turnpike or artificial road from the city of Baltimore to the site of the Susquehanna bridge near Rock Run, on the river Suequehanna, and from thence to the Maryland line, in a direction towards New London Cross roads, in Chester county, Pennsylvania; and also from the said site, or any part of the above road leading from the said site in a direction towards New-London Cross roads, they may deem most advantageous, till it intersects the road from Havre-de-Grace to Wilmington; and also from the site or any place in said road to intersect the road from Havre-de-Grace to Elkton, to be located by the president and managers hereafter to be appointed under the provisions of this act.
