

Dec. Ses. 1816 ville, to the north end of said street, and thence of the width of Washington-street north 35 degrees west, to intersect the Frederick-Town road north of the said town of Rockville.

Plot to be returned.

2. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the commissioners aforesaid, or a majority of them, when they have laid off and surveyed the said roads, to return a plot with a certificate of the courses, to the clerk of Montgomery county court, to be recorded, whose duty it shall be to receive and record the same among the records of Montgomery county.

Road to be sold

3. And be it enacted, That the road running through the lots of the said town of Rockville shall, when the provisions of this act are carried into effect, cease to be a public road, and the road running through the said lots shall become the property of the holders of the said lots respectively; and that part of the road north of the said town, to the place where the new road shall intersect the old road, shall cease to be a public road; and the commissioners aforesaid, or a majority of them, are hereby authorised and directed, to sell at public sale for cash, to the highest bidder, the old road north of the aforesaid town of Rockville, until it intersects the new road, and make a conveyance thereof to the purchaser by deed, which deed shall be a good title in fee simple to the said purchaser; and the money arising from said sale be applied to defraying the expenses of opening the new road.

Road, when opened to be public.

4. And be it enacted, That when the aforesaid road shall have been opened as aforesaid, the same shall thereafter be deemed and used as a public highway for ever, and shall be kept in repair as other public roads and highways of Montgomery county now are.

Damage to be ascertained.

4. And wherens the said road when opened will pass through the ground of Honore Martin, and separate a small corner of the south west end of the same; therefore, Be it enacted, That the commissioners aforesaid, or a majority of them, value and ascertain the damage the said Honore Martin may sustain in consequence of the alteration of the said road, and all the expenses in the surveying, laying off, and opening of the aforesaid road, with the damages ascertained by the commissioners sustained by the said Honore Martin, shall be defrayed by the sale of the old road north of the said town of Rockville, and if that is not sufficient, the deficiency to be paid by the petitioners, or by the persons who may be interested therein, otherwise this law to have no effect.

CHAPTER 29.

Passed Jan. 1, 1817. An act securing to the Sheriff of Baltimore County the Gaol Fees of certain Insolvent Debtors.

Fees to be levied.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the prison fees hereafter payable by law to the present or any future sheriff of Baltimore county, from any insolvent debtor released from confinement in the gaol of said county, in pursuance of the act of assembly, entitled, An act for the relief of insolvent debtors, passed in the year 1774, and which shall not have been paid, or secured to be paid, to such sheriff, shall be levied and
