

of the said levy court, to supply every such vacancy so happen- Dec. Ses. 1816. ing by the appointment of another suitable person to act as supervisor; under the same penalties and regulations as if he had been appointed by a majority of the said justices, and the said justices shall certify every such appointment, under their hands, to the clerk of said county, within ten days thereafter; and the said clerk shall within ten days after being so notified thereof, issue a warrant to the person so appointed, and deliver the same to the sheriff of the county aforesaid, to be by him delivered to the person so appointed, or left at his place of residence, within ten days after receiving the same, under the penalty of ten dollars current money for every neglect by the sheriff or clerk respectively.

5. And be it enacted, That the levy court of Caroline county May levy money.
 shall, at their first levy in the year eighteen hundred and eighteen, and at their annual levy in every year thereafter, levy and assess on the assessable property in said county, such sum of money as they may ascertain from the different supervisors, for the repair of the public roads in said county, and to be collected as other county charges are.

6. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of each super- Penalty on persons refusing to furnish hands. visor to call on the taxable persons within his district, at least two days before he intends working on said roads, and to notify them of his intentions, and the place of meeting, whose duty it shall be to furnish one half of their able bodied male hands, if required, except in time of wheat harvest, under the penalty of sixty-seven cents for every hand so required, to be recovered before a magistrate as other small debts are recoverable in this state, and returned by the said supervisor to the levy court, to be applied as they shall direct.

7. And be it enacted, That for the purpose of regulating and Wages for labourers, &c. establishing wages for labourers, carts and team, the said supervisors may employ able bodied male hands to work on the said roads, at the rate of sixty-seven cents per day, and for cart and team hauling dirt, timber or other materials necessary for the repair of the public roads, the sum of one dollar per day; and for every day which each supervisor shall necessarily attend on said roads as supervisor, he shall be entitled to a sum not exceeding one dollar and fifty cents per day.

8. And be it enacted, That if any of the supervisors appointed Penalty on supervisors neglecting their duty.
 by this act, shall not sufficiently clear, amend, and keep in good order and repair, the public roads within his district, or shall suffer any fallen trees, or other obstructions, to remain in or across any of the said public roads, whereby any cart, wagon, or other carriage, may be obstructed for more than three days together, he having notice thereof, or shall neglect to fall all dead trees on either side of the said public roads, whose limbs hang over, and may by their falling injure travellers, or to lop or cut off all limbs or branches of trees hanging or projecting over the road, within fifteen feet above the surface thereof, or shall suffer any of the bridges or causeways to be out of repair, (except framed