

Dec. Ses. 1816. disposal thereof, at which times the same shall be transferred and paid over to them in their respective proportions; Provided, that in case of the death of any of the said heirs, before they shall have attained such age, their share or part of the funds arising from the sale aforesaid, shall pass or descend in such manner as their interest in the said property would have done had not this law have been passed.

Trustee's allowance.

5. And be it enacted, That the said trustee shall be entitled to such sum or sums of money for his services and trouble that he may necessarily be put to in performance of the duties required by him to be done under this act, as the orphans court of Caroline county shall think proper to allow him.

CHAPTER 122.

Passed Jan. 27. A Supplement to the act, entitled, An act to lay out and open a Road in Harford County.

Preamble.

WHEREAS by an act of assembly passed at December session, eighteen hundred and fifteen, Thomas Hope, Daniel Thompson and James St. Clair, were appointed commissioners to lay out and open a road in Harford county, from George Carien's bars, on the Coop-Town road, to the road leading from Slade's mill to the city of Baltimore, and two of the said commissioners having died before the performance of the duties required of them, Therefore,

New comm'rs appointed.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Samuel Reed and Thomas Hope, of Thomas, be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners to fill the vacancies so occasioned, and, together with the said James St. Clair, to lay out and open the said road as prescribed by the act to which this is a supplement.

CHAPTER 123.

Passed Jan 27 An act to lay out a Town to be called Middle-Town, in Prince-George's County.

Commissioners appointed to lay out town.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John S. Magruder, John Darnall, Nathan Summers, Benjamin Duvall, of Elisha, and Henry Dodson, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners, who, or a majority of whom, shall on or before the first day of July next, meet at the Long Old Fields in said county, and having so met, the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall have power and authority to direct the surveyor of said county, or any other person they may think proper to appoint, there to survey, lay out and locate, a town, to be called Middle-Town; to make out an exact plot thereof, and ascertain and limit the extent of the lots, streets, and lanes thereof, in the manner to be directed by the said commissioners; and the said lots, when so laid out, shall be numbered by the commissioners one, two, three, and so on, for distinguishing each lot from the other; and they shall cause the said streets and lanes to be named by certain names; and the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall have power to adjourn from time to time, till the duties imposed by this act are fully performed.