

2. And be it enacted, That the said lots, when they are surveyed and laid out by the commissioners aforesaid, or a majority of them, shall be and are hereby erected into a town, to be called and known by the name of Middle-Town; and the said commissioners, or a majority of them, are hereby directed to return a correct certificate and plot of the said lots to the clerk of Prince-George's county court, who is hereby required to record the same among the land records of said county, and keep the original certificate and plot in his office, and a certified copy of the original or record, or any part thereof, shall be conclusive evidence as to the bounds and lines of the said town and the lots thereof.

Dec. Ses. 1816
Plot to be re-recorded.

3. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the proprietors of the lots, or any part of a lot in the said town, to provide boundary stones, and to have them marked and set up at the termination of the line or lines of their respective lots, in the presence of the said commissioners, or a majority of them, which shall thereafter be deemed and taken to be the true bounds of the said lots, or any of them.

Boundary stones to be fixed.

4. And be it enacted, That if any of the commissioners shall die, refuse, neglect, or be rendered incapable to act, the remaining commissioner or commissioners may appoint some other person or persons in the place or places of the person or persons who shall so die, refuse, neglect, or be incapable to act.

Vacancies to be filled.

5. And be it enacted, That all expenses incurred in the execution of this act shall be paid by the proprietors in the proportions to the number of lots they may severally own or possess.

Expenses to be paid by owners
of lots.

6. And be it enacted, That before any commissioner or surveyor shall proceed to the execution of the duties required of them by this act, he shall take an oath, or affirmation, as the case may be, before some justice of the peace for the county aforesaid, that he will well and truly discharge the duties enjoined upon him by this act, according to the best of his judgment, without favour, affection or partiality.

Oath.
