

2. And be it enacted, That if any driver or person having charge of any wagon, or other carriage, shall take or receive any sum or sums of money, or goods of any description, from any person or persons, as an inducement for selling any flour or whiskey under the market price of the day, and not make return thereof to the proper owner or owners of such flour or whiskey, and the facts thereof being proven before any justice of the peace in any town or county within this state, he shall pay to the person injured double the amount of the sum so received, and shall moreover pay a fine not exceeding twenty and not less than five dollars, one half of which fine to the person prosecuting for the same, and the other half to the use of the poor of the county in which the case is heard, to be recovered as debts of equal amount are by law recoverable out of court.

Dec. Ses. 1816
— on drivers receiving the same.

CHAPTER 161.

A Further Supplement to the act, entitled, An act for the Opening of Bridge Street, in the Eastern Precincts of the City of Baltimore. Passed Jan. 31

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the petition of a number of the inhabitants of the city and eastern precincts of Baltimore, that a law passed the legislature of Maryland, in the year eighteen hundred and seven, and a supplement thereto in eighteen hundred and twelve, for the removal of a certain house, situate in Bridge-street, in the eastern precincts of Baltimore, heretofore owned by Henry Zigler of said precincts, but latterly by John Fusselbaugh, and the said Fusselbaugh having died, and leaving a widow and several minor children, and there being no provision in said acts directing the investment of the proceeds, arising from the condemnation of said house and lot, in such safe and productive funds as the situation of the widow and minor children of the said Fusselbaugh may require, Therefore,

Preamble.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Hezekiah Prise, William Brown, Daniel Conn, James Piper, and William Warner, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners, and they, or a majority of them, are hereby vested with full power to carry into effect the provisions of the said recited act, and the supplement thereto.

Commissioners appointed.

2. And be it enacted, That when the sum or sums of money directed to be assessed by the supplement to the original act, shall be received by the commissioners herein appointed, they shall pay over the same to the orphans court of Baltimore county, to be vested by them in some safe and productive stock, for the use and benefit of the widow and children of the said John Fusselbaugh, in the same rights and benefits as they now hold said house and lot.

Money to be paid to orphans court.

3. And be it enacted, That so much of the said lot as may by the said commissioners be considered unnecessary to condemn for public streets, shall be vested in the mayor and city council of Baltimore, for the use of the Independent Fire Engine Company, to be used and occupied by the said company for an engine house; Provided always, that if the said Independent Fire En-

Lot not condemned to be for use of Fire Company.

Proviso