

Dec. Sec. 1816 orphans court, as damage or consideration money for the rights and privileges aforesaid.

Money to be vested.

7. And be it enacted, That the said money, when paid, shall, under the discretion of the orphans court aforesaid, be vested in such manner as the said court may direct, and so remain until the minor or minors entitled to receive the same shall have arrived at age, and if any of the said minors shall die before they arrive at lawful age, the money vested as aforesaid shall belong to the person or persons who shall inherit the land through which the race was cut, and the said land covered by water as aforesaid.

Plot to be made and returned.

8. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners, when so appointed, shall cause a plot and certificate to be made of the lands covered by water, or injured by reason of said mill-race, and cause a copy of the same to be returned to the clerk's office of said county, there to be recorded, and the expenses thereof, together with two dollars per day to each commissioner, shall be paid by the said Winbert Tschudy, his heirs or assigns.

If any person conceives himself aggrieved. jury may be summoned, &c.

9. And be it enacted, That if the said Winbert Tschudy, his heirs or assigns, or any other person or persons through whose lands the said race shall pass, or on which said dam may be erected, or his or their guardian or legal representatives, shall conceive him, her or themselves, aggrieved by such valuation and assessment of damages by the said commissioners, it shall and may be lawful for any justice of the peace, on his, her, or their application, to issue his warrant, under his hand and seal, directed to any constable of the county aforesaid, commanding him to summon twelve disinterested men, qualified to serve as jurors in the county court, to meet upon the premises on a certain day, of which ten days notice at least shall be given to the party or parties interested; and the said jurors when so met, and having each taken an oath before some justice of the peace of the county aforesaid, that he will, without favour, affection or partiality, assess the damages sustained by the person or persons at whose request such inquisition shall be taken, by reason of erecting of the said dam, and cutting said race, on or through his, her, or their lands, or in case of exorbitant damages having been assessed by said commissioners, shall thereupon proceed to assess and value the damages accordingly, taking into consideration the advantages and disadvantages, if any, and such inquisition and valuation shall be final and conclusive between the parties respectively, provided the expenses of said inquisition be paid, or secured to be paid, by the person or persons applying as aforesaid.

Inquisition to make return.

10. And be it enacted, That the said inquisition shall return, to the said orphans court aforesaid, under their hands and seals, the result of their investigation, and if any additional damages shall have been assessed, the same shall be, if adjudged to minors, under the direction of the court as aforesaid.

CHAPTER 181.

passed Feb. 3. An act to change and alter the mode of repairing the Public Roads in Worcester County.

Roads to be recorded

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the justices of the levy court of Worcester county, or a