

tent, of any of the lots, streets, lanes and alleys, of the said town, and to establish the same accordingly. Dec. Ses. 1816

6. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners, or any four of them, shall cause the said plot, when finished, together with the depositions by them taken, to be entered on the records of Somerset county, and the same shall be thereafter considered, deemed and taken, to be the true plot of Salisbury aforesaid, and the proprietors of lots and houses in said town shall be vested with a good, sure and indefeasible estate of inheritance, in fee simple, of, in and to, their several and respective lots and houses laid down in the manner herein directed. Plot to be recorded.

7. And be it enacted, That if any one or two of the commissioners aforesaid shall die, refuse, neglect, or be rendered incapable to act, a majority of the remaining commissioners may appoint some other in the place of the person who shall die, refuse, neglect, or be incapable to act, and if any three or more of said commissioners shall die, refuse, neglect, or be incapable to act, the governor with the advice of the council may appoint some person or persons in his or their place or places, so as to make up the remaining vacancies in manner aforesaid. Vacancies:

8. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall be allowed the sum of one dollar and fifty cents per day for every day they shall attend as commissioners aforesaid, and the chain-carriers one dollar per day for every day the said chain carrier or carriers shall attend, and that the surveyor shall be allowed the sum of three dollars per day for every day he shall be employed by the commissioners aforesaid for the purpose aforesaid. Allowance.

9. And be it enacted, That the several proprietors of the lots in said town shall, at their joint expense, pay to the said commissioners the aforesaid sum of one dollar and fifty cents per day, to be levied on their property, and all other expenses in equal proportions, to the value of the property held by them, severally to be adjudged by the said commissioners. — to be paid by proprietors of lots.

10. And be it enacted, That before any commissioner shall proceed to the execution of his office, he shall take an oath, or affirmation, before some justice of the peace, or some other of the commissioners, that he will well and truly discharge the duties enjoined upon him by this law, according to the best of his experience and judgment. Oath:

11. And be it enacted, That the whole of the proceedings and transactions of the commissioners aforesaid, under this act, shall be transmitted to the office of the clerk of Somerset county court, to be recorded among the records of said county, and any person or persons aggrieved thereby may appeal to the county court of said county for redress, provided said person or persons so appeal within twelve months from the time the said proceedings are filed in the said office. Proceedings to be transmitted to county clerk.

12. And be it enacted, That the town of Salisbury, for all the purposes of this act, shall extend to the limits delineated by the act to which this act is a supplement. Limits of town.