

Dec. Ses. 1817 than five, unless it be for removing some fallen tree or trees, or other obstructions, repairing bridges or washes, on forfeiture of his wages for the time that a less number shall be employed by him as such.

Court to keep bridges in repair. 14. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the levy court of said county, and they are hereby directed to keep up the necessary repairs of all framed bridges in said county as they have before been kept up.

Owners of mills to keep roads in repair 15. And be it enacted, That all owners of water mills over which public roads pass, shall be bound to keep in repair said roads as has been done heretofore, under the penalty not exceeding ten dollars for every day such road or bridges shall be out of order, the same to be recovered before a justice of the peace, in the same manner as fines are laid and recovered against supervisors by section nine, the same to be applied accordingly.

To be allowed a sum equal to their road tax. 16. And be it enacted, That for the purpose of refunding the road tax on owners of water mills, the levy court shall allow each owner of a water mill, who shall keep up a road over the same as aforesaid, such sum as the court may deem equal to their road tax, the same to be allowed in the levy list.

Duty of supervisor 17. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of each supervisor to direct the hands what tools or implements they shall carry on the road to work with, and to appoint an early hour in each day to commence working on the road, and to continue the hands, when necessary, to a late hour in each day, and to see that each hand does his duty on the road; any person neglecting to meet and refusing to obey the reasonable commands of the supervisor as aforesaid, said hand's wages shall be forfeited for that day, and such hand, or the owner of such hand, or person under whom such hand may be sent, shall moreover be liable to be fined not exceeding one dollar and fifty cents, to be recovered and applied as in section six, and the supervisor shall not be obliged to return the labour of such person to the levy court, provided a fine has been laid for the day.

May be fined for neglect. 18. And be it enacted, That each supervisor may be fined not exceeding ten dollars for wilfully neglecting to return the services done, or allowance to each person, under this act, which fine may be recovered by each person entitled, before a justice of the peace, as small debts are recoverable.

Fine to be paid over to levy court 19. And be it enacted, That any justice of the peace shall be authorised and empowered to receive all fines imposed by this act, (except those which supervisors are to receive) and shall pay over the same to the levy court, under the penalty of treble the amount thereof, and the supervisor shall also pay over to the levy court the amount they may respectively receive, under the like penalty, to be recovered in the county court for money had and received, under the direction of the said levy court, in the name of the state, to be applied to the county charges.

Justice may give judgment 20. And be it enacted, That any justice of the peace may lay any of the fines aforesaid, and give judgment for the same, and issue execution thereon, as in case of small debts.

Fine on persons altering roads. 21. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons shall alter, change, obstruct, or encroach upon, any of the said roads, or cut down, destroy, or purposely injure, any of the bridges or causeways, such person or persons, on being thereof convicted in the
