tion in certain cases.

2. And be it enacted, That if such debtor or debtors shall be arrested on the capias ad respondendum issuing with such attachment, from any county court in this state, or if the said debtor shall appear to the same within the time limited in other cases of attachment, the court in which such proceedings may be had shall have and exercise full and ample jurisdiction in such suit, in the same manner, and by the like process and proceedings, as if the said debt exceeded the said sum of fifty dollars current money.

CHAPTER 139.

Passed Feb 6

An act to provide for the Conveyance and Return of Process issued from the Courts of one County to the Officers of another.

Preamble

WHEREAS, the trial of causes, civil and criminal, is often delayed by the irregular manner in which process is conveyed from the courts of one county to the officers of another county, and by the want of convenient proof of the delivery of such process to the officers to whom the same is directed, as well as by the frequent neglect of such officers to serve and return such process; and it appears to be necessary, for the speedy and due administration of justice, that an effective remedy should be provided in that behalf, Therefore,

Process issuing from one county to be served in another, how to be conveyed

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, the clerk or register of any court within this state, who shall be required to issue any original or judicial writ, subpoena, summons, or other process, to be served in any other county than that in which such court shall usually hold its session, shall issue such process accordingly, directed to the sheriff, coroner, or other proper officer, of such other county to whom the same ought to be directed, and shall immediately enclose such process in a letter or cover, sealed up and addressed to the clerk of such other county, and on the back thereof shall endorse his name as clerk of the county, and shall forthwith deposit the same in the nearest post office, to be conveyed by the ensuing mail to the post office at the place in which, or nearest to which, the clerk of such other county shall reside; and in such letter or cover shall be written the usual docket-entry of such process, so as to show the parties concerned, and the nature and purpose thereof.

Clerks to send to post-offices
once a week

2. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the several clerks of the respective counties of this state, to attend at or send to the post-offices nearest to their residence, at least once a week, and enquire for letters and covers addressed to them; and if such letters or co-
