

RESOLUTIONS.

257

RESOLVED, That the treasurer of the western shore be and he is hereby directed, to purchase ninety-eight copies of the book entitled "Brice on Wills," published by James F. Brice, and to pay the amount thereof out of any unappropriated money in the treasury. Dec. Ses. 1817

RESOLVED, That the governor and council cause the said books, as they shall be purchased, to be forwarded and distributed as follows: To the court of appeals for each shore two copies; to the court of chancery three copies; to each county court two copies; to each of the orphans courts two copies; to the general assembly ten copies; and to the executive one copy; to the land office for the western shore two copies; and to the land office for the eastern shore two copies.

No. 57.

RESOLVED, That the governor and council be requested, and they are hereby authorised, to dispose of sundry munitions of war, mentioned in their communication of the sixth instant, in such manner as in their opinion may best promote the public good.

No. 58.

RESOLVED, That the treasurer of the western shore be and he is hereby directed, to pay to General John Gassaway, or his order, the sum of six hundred dollars, out of any unappropriated money in the treasury, it being the difference between the pay of officers of his rank during the time he was in actual service, and the annual compensation previously allowed him by law.

No. 59.

RESOLVED, That the governor and council be and they are hereby authorised and directed, to advance to Jonas Green, the printer employed by a resolution passed this session for printing a compilation of the laws, such sum of money as may be necessary for the purpose of printing the same, by order on the treasury, to be paid out of any unappropriated money therein.

No. 60.

RESOLVED. That the treasurer of the western shore pay to Cornelius Mills, sergeant at arms, the sum of thirty dollars; to Caleb Stewart, door-keeper to the house of delegates, the sum of thirty dollars; to Gotlieb I. Grammer, messenger to the senate, the sum of thirty dollars; to Henry Coulter, door-keeper to the senate, the sum of thirty dollars; for taking care of the furniture of their respective rooms.

No. 61.

RESOLVED, That the governor and council be and they are hereby authorised, to inquire whether a lot of ground in the city of Baltimore, distinguished by the No. sixty-five, was liable to confiscation, and if upon such inquiry they shall be satisfied that it was not so liable, then they shall order the bond given to the state for said lot by Francis Daws, and William C. Gouldsmith as his security, to be cancelled.

No. 62.

RESOLVED, That the surveyor of Dorchester county be and he is hereby directed, to survey and lay down lot number one of the Choptank Indian lands, situate in Dorchester county, of which Joseph Ennalls was the purchaser, and to return a plot and certificate of its contents to the treasurer of the western shore, and that the said treasurer be and he is hereby directed to credit the said Joseph Ennalls for the deficiency that may be in the said lot.

No. 63.

RESOLVED, That the governor and council cause to be sold, in such manner, and upon such terms as they may approve of, five hundred copies of Chancellor Kilty's Reports of English Statutes, and that the money arising from the sale thereof be appropriated, under the direction of the chief judge of the court of appeals, and chancellor of Maryland, to the purchase of a public library for the use of the superior courts and the general assembly.

No. 64.

RESOLVED, That the governor and council be and they are hereby requested, to call on the president and managers of the turnpike roads passing westward through this state, for such information as may enable the executive to present to the next general assembly of Maryland, (which they are hereby requested to do) a full view of the state and probable progress of each of the said roads, and particularly the road undertaken to be made by the banks in this state, with such suggestions as shall appear to them useful for the consideration of the legislature in promoting these desirable improvements.

No. 65.

RESOLVED, That the examiner general shall lay before the next general assembly the amount of fees that he may receive in the present year, on oath, and that
