No. 75.

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the attention of the Congress of the United States be respectfully invited to the defenceless situation of its territory bordering on the waters of the Chesapeake bay. The facilities offered by the boldness and ramification of its waters, to an invading foe, are written in the history of the last war. Such a time of peace and national prosperity as the United States are now prominently blessed with, permits the collected wisdom of the constituted authorities to devise the most efficient system of defence, and allows the resources of the union to be applied to the future security of the seat of the American government.

RESOLVED, That in the event of the United States establishing a Naval Depot at Annapolis, the Saint Mary's River, or at any other place within this state, Maryland will cede, free of any expense to the general government, the territory adequate to that purpose.
