Sec. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall and may be lawful for the president and directors, at all times hereafter, in lieu of the tolls heretofore paid, to demand and receive the following tolls for passing said bridge, to wit: For every coach, chariot, or other four-wheeled carriages, stage or wagon, fifty cents; for every two wheeled carriage or cart, of every description, twenty-five cents; for a horse and rider ten cents; for every head of horses or mules five cents; for every head of horned cattle four cents; for every score of sheep or hogs twenty cents; for every foot passenger four cents; which rates of tolls shall at all times be made public, and kept in some conspicuous place for the inspection of passengers, any law, usage or custom, to the contrary notwithstanding. Rates of toll allowed in lieu of those granted by former act.

2. And be it enacted, That so much of the act to which this is a supplement as is contrary to, or inconsistent with this act, be and the same is hereby repealed. Part of act repealed.

CHAPTER 47.

An Additional Supplement to the act, entitled, An act for founding an Academy at Hager's-Town, in Washington county. Passed Jan 18 1819

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, that the provisions of the fifth section of the supplement to which this act is an additional supplement, have not been complied with, for several years past, therefore, Preamble.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That an election for seven trustees for the Hager's-town academy, be held on the first Monday in March next, and on the first Monday of every succeeding March thereafter, by the stockholders in said institution, in the manner directed by the original act to which this is an additional supplement, at such place in Hager's-town as the president of the board of trustees for the time being shall appoint, of which time and place of election he shall give one month's previous notice in the newspapers of Hager's-town, and such seven trustees, elected in the manner above directed, and their successors, annually so elected, shall have all the powers, perform all the duties, and enjoy all the rights and immunities, which by the law to which this is an additional supplement were given to and required of the twenty-one trustees in the said original act mentioned. Seven trustees to be annually elected.

2. And be it enacted, That the trustees hereafter to be elected as aforesaid, and their successors, shall have full power to sell such parts of the real estate now held by the Hager's-town academy, as they or a majority of the board may deem expedient, and they are hereby authorised to make to the purchaser or purchasers a deed or deeds of conveyance for the same, and to apply the proceeds of such sale or sales towards the payment of any debt or debts with which the institution is at present, or may hereafter be encumbered; and they are hereby authorised and empowered, generally to do and perform all such acts and things as they may think expedient and necessary for the benefit of the said academy herein authorised, or which the trustees had authority to do by the act to which this is a supplement. Authorised to sell part of the real estate now held by the academy.
